

SALISBURY DETERMINED.

PORTUGAL MUST IMMEDIATELY APOLOGIZE.

Else the English Will Seize Dagoes Bay - Seated a Boulanger-Old World News.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—Lord Salisbury is represented by those who are in official contact with him to be determined to seize Dagoes Bay unless Portugal immediately makes a satisfactory apology for her action in southeast Africa, restores the status quo as it existed before the recent raid of Serpa Pinto and makes suitable reparation for the injury inflicted upon British interests. In an interview with the correspondent of the Daily News at Lisbon to-day, Senhor Gomes, minister of marine, colonies and foreign affairs, intimated his willingness to meet England with a liberal commercial policy in southeast Africa. He laid great stress on the value of England's friendship, and emphatically denied that English merchants complain of the Portuguese administration. On the contrary, he asserted they greatly deplored Portugal's loss of the lower Congo.

Photographed the Eclipse. LONDON, Dec. 24.—Dispatches from St. Paul de Loando report that numerous photographs of the eclipse were obtained by the American expedition during the period of totality. The effect was much obscured by clouds. All the apparatus in use worked to perfection. The photographs made in the Pensacola, which were taken out at sea, are likely to be particularly useful.

One Boulanger Seated. PARIS, Dec. 24.—The Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 264 to 201 has declared valid the election of M. Greffulhe, Boulangerist. M. Constans, the minister of the interior, read a decree closing the session. The Senate agreed to the law by which the government assumes the monopoly of the manufacture of matches. M. Flourou announced that in consequence of the illness of M. Spuller, minister of foreign affairs, the debate on the Newfoundland fisheries must be postponed.

Explorer Stanley Criticized. BERLIN, Dec. 24.—The National Zeitung attacks Stanley's statements in regard to Emin Pasha. It says they seem to be made as a reply to the statement that Emin's embassies were caused in part by Stanley's arrival and his determination to rescue one who did not desire to be rescued, and that Emin will be heard in his own defense before conclusions are reached.

The York won at Lisbon. WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The Navy department is advised of the arrival at Lisbon of the United States ship Yorktown. This trip across the ocean of the three 14-knot cruisers, the Boston, Chicago, and Atlanta, and the 16-knot cruiser, the Albatross, was made with interest by naval officials, and the fact that the 14-knot cruisers beat their foster sister eight hours on the trip is freely commented on.

ILLINOIS COAL MINES.

The Report of Secretary Lord of the State Board of Labor Statistics. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 24.—The report of the Secretary Lord of the State Board of Labor Statistics shows that the total production of Illinois coal mines for the year ended July 1, ult., was less than that of the preceding year by 257,225 tons, yet materially greater than that of any year preceding that ended July 1, 1888. The following summaries are compiled from the reports of the several inspectors and present the general result of the year's business for the State at large:

Number of counties in which coal has been mined, 49; mines and openings of all kinds, 551; tons of lump coal mined, 1,130,000; value of product at the mines, $12,400,885; average value a ton at the mines, $10.97; employees of all kinds, 30,076; miners, 25,535; boys employed underground, 3,500; average number of days of active operations, 211.5; average price a ton for handling 74.1 cents; tons of lump coal mined by hand, 4,110; 148; men killed, 12; wives made, 23; children made fatherless, 36; men injured so as to lose time, 301; new mines, including old mines reopened, 123; mines closed, 100; mining machines in use, 235. In the course of the long chapter upon local openings with less than 1,000 tons annual output and 317 more rise to a product ranging from 1,000 to 10,000 tons. The coal mines of the State have produced over 200,000 tons each: The Chicago, Wilmington & Vermilion Coal company No. 1, at Streator; the Consolidated Coal and Mining Co., No. 5, at Stanton, and No. 8, at Mount Olive; the Pann Coal and Mining company, No. 1, at Pana.

The county in which the greatest amount of coal was mined is Macoupin, with a record of 1,202,187 tons. The extremes of prices reported are 50 cents a ton on the track at several places in St. Clair county and $2.35 a ton at the mines. It is said to fairly indicate the actual difference in the cost of production. Complications of the prices paid to hand miners previous to the labor disturbances show a wide difference between the extremes of 31 cents and $1.50 paid to the coal-digger, and the localities in which they are found correspond with those in which the extremes of prices are found. The price paid for the greater portion of hand mining is from 50 to 95 cents a ton. Although the number of machines in use has decreased, the output of the State has increased 19 per cent in 1888 to 21 per cent in 1889.

With the gradual development of the coal resources of the State it is found that the number of operatives drawn largely by the demands of the industry increases year by year, regardless of the fluctuations in trade and wages. The gain in 1889 over the previous year was 696. The Secretary's chapter upon the details of the operations of the mines that the mines of this State can supply the State's demand and run only two weeks of the time. Eighteen mines favorably situated report 300 days or more of active operations during the last year, but suspensions, more or less prolonged, are an established feature of the business. In the course of the long chapter upon the great labor disturbance in the northern fields of the State Secretary Lord observes that it involved more men, more loss of time, wages and product, more sympathy and discussion, and, at that time, was conducted with more patience and moderation on the part of the men in the coal mines than any which has ever occurred in the history of coal mining in the State.

HENRY W. GRADY DEAD.

The Famous Atlanta Editor Passed Away—Brief Sketch of the Man.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 24.—Henry W. Grady, the famous southern editor, died at 8:40 o'clock Monday morning. The editor has been steadily sinking for some time and it became evident Sunday night that his death was close at hand. The cause of his disease was typhoid pneumonia.

His message to his mother in a conscious moment Sunday was characteristic. "If I die," said he, "I die serving the South, the land I love so well. Father fell in battle for it. I am proud to die talking for it."

Henry W. Grady was born in Athens, Ga., May 17, 1851, and was educated at the University of Georgia and the University of Virginia. His father was a wealthy business man of Athens and was killed at Petersburg while leading the Twenty-fifth North Carolina regiment to meet Grant.

At the age of 20 Mr. Grady was editor of the Commercial, published at Rome, Ga. Subsequently he started the Herald. In 1876 the Herald went to the wall and Mr. Grady found himself out of a job. He went to New York and was engaged on the Herald staff. He stood on that paper for two years.

In 1880 he bought a fourth interest in the Atlanta Constitution. From this point his advance up the ladder was rapid and at the time of his death he was at the top round. He leaves a wife and two bright young children.

Mr. Grady was Napoleonic in his newspaper ideas. He thought that a paper could not have too much sensational news. Although the editor managed the political campaigns he had steadfastly refused to accept any office. He was tendered the position of Congressman from the fourth district several years ago but would not accept it.

NEW YORK NEWS.

William Freemayer Cuts His Throat and Wrist—A Machinist Hangs Himself.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—An extraordinary attempt at suicide occurred early this morning. The police found the sidewalk of William Freemayer, a machinist, in flames. The door was locked, and when it was broken into by the officers Freemayer staggered out with his throat and both wrists cut.

The man was evidently crazy, and assaulted the police with an iron bar. Six of them were required to subdue him. Freemayer was taken to the hospital, where his wounds were pronounced not necessarily fatal.

Frank Langendorf, a machinist, insane from insomnia, hanged himself this morning in the yard of his house.

Mrs. K. M. Langendorf, daughter of Maggo, aged 2 years, were probably fatally burned early this morning by the upsetting of a lamp which set fire to their night clothes.

MANITOBA WHEAT CORNERED.

The Ogilvie Milling Company Acts on a Point from the Government.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, Dec. 24.—The Ogilvie Milling company, the largest milling company in Canada, has secured a corner on all wheat in the province of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, amounting to about four millions of bushels. It is an open secret that the firm secured a pointer from the dominion government that the duty on flour would be increased at the pending session from 50 cents to $1 a barrel. The Ogilvies have large mills in the Northwest and will manufacture all the grain. Their deal cuts a lot of other milling companies out of sufficient wheat to keep going, and in consequence wheat has bounced up to 80 cents and over in the country. The price paid by Ogilvie was within a cent of what Duluth wheat at the present prices could be sold here, and there is not within five million bushels of the surplus existing in the province when the harvest was reaped.

AN OUTBREAK PROBABLE.

The Kickapoos Determined to Overthrow the Oklahoma City Government.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 24.—Dispatches from Oklahoma City say the situation there is growing more critical every hour. Mayor Beale, leader of the Kickapoos, has formed a secret organization among his followers for the purpose of overthrowing the present city government and substituting in its place one composed of his friends. A committee waited upon him to-day, appealing with him to desist from his present course and ignore the ultimatum. Both sides have telegraphed United States Attorney-General Miller their side of the difficulty.

The committee referred to above sent a telegram to-day to Gen. Merritt asking him of the probability of an outbreak and asking him to be ready to send aid.

North Dakota's Prohibition Bill. Bismarck, N. D., Dec. 24.—The North Dakota prohibition law, recently passed by the legislature, punishes a first offense with a fine of from $200 to $1,000 and imprisonment not less than thirty days nor more than one year. The second and succeeding offenses are treated as felonies, with punishment by imprisonment in the State prison for not more than two years and not less than one year.

Two Men Drowned. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 24.—A Hinton, Sumter county, W. Va., special agent, Porter Raymond and John Lewis were drowned in New River, near here. The two parties named, in company with a third man, Butler, were boat loaded with corn down the stream, their idea being to sell it to obtain money for the Christmas holidays. In passing Lick Creek the boat was capsized and the three occupants thrown into the water. Butler succeeded in reaching the shore, but both his companions were lost.

Another Victim of the Detroit School Fire. DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 24.—Nellie Thacker, the fifth victim of the Friday school fire, has died. All danger was apparently passed, when a blood vessel in her arm burst, and the great loss of blood, with her debilitated condition, brought the end. All the other girls are out of danger. The coroner's jury returned a formal verdict, neither concurring nor exculpating anyone.

Coal Miners to Resume Work. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 24.—A majority of the coal miners in the Monongahela valley resumed operations to-day at the rate of one bushel advance in the mining rate demanded by the miners. A few miners are still idle, but they will be in the operation in ten days. The resumption will give employment to nearly 5,000 men who have been on a strike for two months.

"But oh! what damned minutes tell o'er" who suffers, but waits; who writes yet more; before he makes up his mind to send out for just twenty-five cents worth of Salvation Oil, the pain cure. They say the average politician is getting hoarse talking about tariff and no tariff, but he comes his every night with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and begins fresh next morning with the lark. Home made comfortable, well made hand tied, good quality, pure cotton filled, large size. We have them. J. M. Bosworth & Sons.

AN EX-EDITOR CONVICTED.

JAMES J. WEST GIVEN FIVE YEARS.

Found Guilty of Overissuing the Stock of the Chicago Times—The Criminal Record.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—James J. West, late editor of the Chicago Times, has been found guilty of fraudulently overissuing Times stock and punishment fixed at five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary and a fine of $1,000. His co-defendant, Charles E. Graham, the former secretary of the Chicago Times company, was acquitted.

Mr. West's attorney immediately moved for a new trial. The hearing was set for Thursday, Jan. 2, 1890. After much endeavor Assistant State's Attorney Elliott's consent was secured that West should be allowed out on bail pending the argument for a new trial. The bond is $15,000.

The jury had very little difficulty in coming to a verdict, being almost unanimously from the start. Graham's luck was not so good.

In 1880 he bought a fourth interest in the Atlanta Constitution. From this point his advance up the ladder was rapid and at the time of his death he was at the top round. He leaves a wife and two bright young children.

DECLARED A DRAW.

The Smith-Slavin Fight Interfered With by the Englishman's Interference.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 24.—The fight between Jam Smith of England and Frank Slavin, the Australian champion, was fought this morning on private grounds situated three miles from Bruges.

There was much squabbling from the onset, and owing to the outrageous conduct of Smith's party the referee declared the fight a draw at the conclusion of the fourteenth round and refused to resume the ground. Smith's party broke into the and interfered with the fair progress of the fight.

Further particulars show that Slavin forced the fighting at the start, hitting Smith several times on the chest and head during the first two rounds. The men fell together and when Slavin rose he was bleeding from the mouth.

In the third round Smith got home with his right and left, and in return was knocked down by Slavin. The fourth round was marked by hard fighting, in the sixth round Slavin landed a terrific blow on one of Smith's eyes.

In the seventh round Smith fought Slavin to the ropes, where a crowd of Smith's friends kicked Slavin, who, however, remained silent. Smith was knocked down in the eighth round. During the ninth the mob surrounded the ring and struck Slavin several times. In the eleventh round Slavin again knocked his opponent down.

Smith's friends again struck Slavin during the thirteenth round, but their blows were once again knocked down. In the fourteenth round Slavin protested against the treatment he was receiving and appealed to the referee for fair play. The referee was greeted with derision by Smith's friends, who shouted: "Police!" and bolted from the ground. Slavin remained in the ring, and Smith, who had left when his friends ran away, returned. The referee then said that it was impossible to secure fair treatment for Slavin and declared the fight a draw. Slavin was full of fight to the finish.

Slavin the Better Man. LONDON, Dec. 24.—A report received here concerning the Smith-Slavin prize fight in Belgium says Slavin showed all through the fight that he was the better man. A number of roughs at the ring side, armed with knuckledusters and sticks, tried to assault Slavin, and the Australian was struck several times. At the end of the thirteenth round Smith left the ring. Slavin remained and claimed the fight, but the referee would not give it to him. After a short time Smith returned to the ring. During the next round there was a great uproar. At the end of the round Smith was very sick. The fight lasted twenty-two minutes.

It was reported at one time that Slavin had been killed, but this report proved false.

Needham Knocks Out Smith. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 24.—Danny Needham of St. Paul and Paddy Smith of Birmingham, England, light weights, fought at the Oakland club last night for a purse of $1,000. The hardest fighting was in the second, third, and twelfth rounds. First blood was gained by Needham in the first round, while Smith gained only a knock-down in the sixth. Smith picked up in the thirteenth round and fought savagely until he was knocked out in the seventeenth round.

THEIR LIABILITIES $2,000,000. Latest Estimates on the Great Failures in the Blank Book Trade.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Dec. 24.—The failures of J. J. Felt, of New York, J. B. Shepley & Son, blank book manufacturers, are greater than was at first supposed. Their liabilities consist largely of promissory notes and acceptances held by banks. The first national bank of Saugerties holds about $50,000, the Saugerties bank $30,000, and the national bank of Rondout about $20,000. A considerable part of this indebtedness is on business paper taken by Sheffield & Son and the Saugerties Blank Book company for goods sold, from which the banks will realize the full amount. The banks which hold this paper are the Merchants' Exchange, the Third national, the Mercantile, and the Ninth national, of New York; the First national of Springfield, Mass., and the Merchants' national of Albany.

While the total liabilities are estimated at $2,000,000, the liabilities of the company cannot be given accurately. The assets of Sheffield & Son consist of the mill property at Saugerties, estimated at $500,000 (which is mortgaged for $363,000), of which $263,000 is represented in the mortgage bonds held by the Sheffield family and $24,000 by a mortgage on that part of the property rented to the Barclay Fiber Company; stock manufactured and unmanufactured, worth between $300,000 and $400,000, and machinery, etc., valued at $200,000, besides accounts with customers. The assets of the Saugerties Blank Book company are finished and unfinished stock, within the neighborhood of $300,000, machinery, etc., valued at about $100,000.

THE SITUATION IN BRAZIL. It is Not Thought to be so Favorable as Cables Indicate.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The opinion begins to gain strength here that the situation in Brazil is not so favorable as the cables sent out by the provisional government seem to indicate and that these cables are intentionally colored to give a more encouraging idea of the affairs than the facts really warrant.

Consequently the financial market is somewhat disturbed, especially as the Lisbon banks are obliged to obtain their code telegrams by way of London and Paris, as nothing of any sort is permitted to come direct to Portugal without being subjected to strict censorship. Dom Pedro still maintains his silence concerning the affairs of Brazil.

Here is a sentiment in four lines which a few who rarely have their hearts or their pocket-book opened by the spirit of Christmas, may find a valuable suggestion:

Thou man may last, but never live,
Whom much receives and nothing gives,
Who none can love, whom none can thank,
Whose life is blank—creation's blank.

The surplus in a man's pocket-book is not worth much after Christmas.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

We now find that we can give some time to real estate outside of our own, and from this date we offer our services to market property either on commission or we will contract to do the work and take a share of the profits as our pay. We do not want any property to handle except where we can be the only agents to represent it, and we do not care for little lots, although where owners will make us their exclusive agents we will take hold of any piece.

What we will give particular attention to is any large property to be improved or otherwise. Parties having tracts or additions that they want handled with vim and intelligence will be treated with very liberality. We shall occupy our new office, Tallman block, 13 East Milwaukee street opposite postoffice on or before January 1st, but in the meantime come into 38 South Main street and talk with us if you have business to present. A FORMER CENTERITE IN IOWA.

To the Editor.

Over here in Iowa, we are amused to see that the "Center Jetter" is a post would be, and as much as we would like to see him, we shall like to see him at the same time.

There, Mr. Editor, don't get mad. You ought to feel honored and glad to get such a letter as this, and so free from that poor jetter and me.

Mother Oll is slowly regaining health and strength—says she wants a sleigh ride to-morrow. She can have it. We've got the snow.

Farmers in this vicinity plowed up to the 20th inst. That night four inches of snow fell and last night about two inches more, enough to make pretty fair sleighing. The weather is just splendid.

If any Gazette reader wants to buy a farm cheap, let him come to Cerro Gordo county, Iowa. We've got rich soil, a healthy climate, good water, in fact everything to make it a desirable location for farmers. Come west, young man, come west.

Mrs. L. P. Jones has gone to California to spend the winter.

Henry Hathorn has his new Tuckwood geared windmill up and running, ready to do all kinds of custom feed grinding. Henry is one of Cerro Gordo Co.'s wide-awake, enterprising farmers.

BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT.

THE RECEPTION LAST EVENING BY SURGEON-GENERAL AND MRS. HENRY PALMER.

The reception given last evening by Surgeon-General and Mrs. Henry Palmer in honor of the marriage of their son, Dr. W. H. Palmer and Miss Kittie Nichols, was a most brilliant affair and was the society event of the season in this city.

The handsome home and grounds of Dr. Palmer at 115 Madison street were brilliantly illuminated and filled with good cheer by the amiable host and hostess, who were assisted in the reception of guests by Mrs. L. T. Nichols, mother of the bride, and by Miss Stella Palmer, daughter of the host and hostess, and also by Miss Lou Nichols, sister of the bride.

Of the seven hundred invitations issued, but few were responded to by regrets, and consequently the house was thronged from four o'clock in the afternoon until nearly midnight, all being made to feel perfectly at home. The younger Palmer and his bride were, as a matter of course, the center around whom the guests clustered and bestowed their warmest congratulations, and they could not but feel happy and proud of such cheerful expressions in their behalf.

Refreshments were served in abundance, and for several hours the sweet strains of music by a full orchestra were heard from an adjoining room. All in all the reception was one of the largest and happiest gatherings seen in Janesville, everything connected therewith moving along with time-like precision, and nothing occurring during the entire time to mar in the least the joy and happiness of the occasion.

OBITUARY.

FRANK CHALL.

Died—this morning at nine o'clock, at his home, No. 104 Race street, First ward, Frank Chall, aged thirty-one years.

Mr. Chall had been sick but a comparatively short time, with a stomach difficulty, and although his illness was very painful, he rarely uttered a word of complaint. He was conscious to the last, and recognized his wife and other relatives shortly before his death. He was an engineer by profession, and was a young man for whom everyone speaks a good word. He had not an enemy in the world, and his death at this time seems untimely. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Chall, of Center, and had only recently removed to the city to reside. The sorrowing wife and parents have the most sincere sympathy of all in the hour of their affliction.

JULIUS THOM.

Julius Thom died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Thom, No. 166 Jefferson street yesterday morning at eleven o'clock. He was only fifteen years of age and his untimely death is a sad blow to his sorrow-stricken parents.

The funeral was held from the house this afternoon at three o'clock, the Rev. Max Albrecht officiating.
